

Broadband Internet and WiFi hotspots

**Note: Many WiFi hotspots work if you are in your car – you don't need to go inside**

Altice through Optimum and Suddenlink is offering free internet access for 60 days.

AT&T is also offering public access to their WiFi Hotspots for free. There are also has also reduced the price of one of their packages offering internet access for qualifying limited income households at $10 a month through our Access from AT&T program

Comcast is also offering free internet access for 60 days to new low-income families as well as opening their Xfinity WiFi hotspots to everyone for free. Click here for a map of Xfinity hotspots

Cox is offering free internet access for 60 days to people who qualify.

Mediacom is offering 60 days of free internet access to qualifying people. The company has also lowered their price to $19.99/month for one of their internet packages. They are also providing free hotspot access

Spectrum is offering free internet access to students for 60 days

Mobile phone carriers

AT&T is waiving data or voice overage fees

Safelink offers free mobile phone service

Sprint has added free mobile hotspots to every phone that supports hotspots. They are also including free unlimited data

T-Mobile has added free mobile hotspots to every phone that supports hotspots. They are also including free unlimited data

Other

Also, every internet company (broadband and mobile) in the US has made the commitment to not terminate service or impose late penalties for 60 days.

There is also a Federal Government program for qualifying people who can pay $9.95 for internet. Check it out here